The Chesham Public Library has been opened for use one afternoon and one evening a week during the last year. The circulation during July and August was only five or six volumes a week, but for the rest of the year it has averaged about thirty books a week. The larger number of the readers are school children and great care has been given to the selection of the best reading for them.

The library has about 850 volumes ; more than 200 of these being added this year by gifts from citizens, summer people and other libraries. Most of these are usable and valuable books. Several magazines are subscribed for the library by our interested friends most of them for the children. Many of the best adult magazines are sent in by readers in our own community.

The money contributed by the town was spent for materials for cataloguing the library (at the request of the state Public Library Commission) and for wood and for shelving for the books.

This year we greatly need more shelf room and a rack for the magazines. We appreciate last year's help and ask for the same amount for this year.

HARRIET FRANCIS,
Librarian.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens of Harrisville:

I herein submit my eighth annual report as superintendent of schools.

Herbert Spencer told us many years ago that "To prepare for complete living is the function which education has to discharge; and the only rational mode of judging of any educational course is to judge in what degree it discharges such functions."

Today this definition implies not only a knowledge of the "Three R's," a reasonable accuracy in the fundamentals, a workable habit in the mechanics and skills of knowledge, but also an adjustment to conditions which prevailing isms and a machine age have brought upon us.

The propaganda in the form of various isms which are attacking our institutions can be successfully met only through education.

The rising generation must have its intellectual activity aroused and strengthened through the habits of cogent reasoning. They must be taught to think. Teachers must not be content with the when, where and what, but more emphasis and attention must be placed on the why. That is, factual questions alone will not accomplish our ends but we must rely more on reasoning projects rightly directed. The walking encyclopedia of facts is not the educated man of today. For often the facts of the Past become the untruths of the Present, especially in science.

Again, the need for training for leisure has been forced upon us during the last year more strongly than ever before. The unemployment situation is provocative of our most serious consideration. Labor, today, is calling for the eight-hour day and the five-day week and machines are doing the work formerly done by human brain and muscle.

What will the rising generation do with their leisure time? How can we train the young so that they can utilize their leisure in beneficial rather than in detrimental ways? How can our pupils be taught to be appreciative and to gain enjoyment from reflection, meditation and thought instead of eternally seeking nervous excitation, so called thrills? How can we cultivate in our leisure time an appreciation of the culture which we have inherited from former ages and is available for all of us in literature, in art, in music, in architecture and in the beauty and mystery of nature?

These are questions which challenge our best intelligence, efforts and thought.

PROMOTIONS

The following numbers of promotions were made in June:

Grades	I	II	III	IV	V	VI	VIII	VIII
Grammar					5	9	10	5
Primary	5	5	5	5
Chesham	4	5	3	1		2	1	4
	—	—	—	—	—	—	—	—
Totals,	9	10	8	6	5	11	11	9

These promotions were made on the five point basis, viz.: Term rank, regularity of attendance, standard tests, judgment of teacher and judgment of superintendent.

The Stanford Achievement Tests were given. Test V was given at mid-year and test W was given in June. In both tests the pupils maintained creditable standing in their respective grades. Also the Otis Standard Graduation examination for elementary schools was given to the Eighth Grade.

TEACHERS FOR YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1930

Harrisville Grammar,
Harrisville Primary,
Chesham,

Annie E. Boynton
Anna M. Ryan
Beatrice Hickey

The teachers mentioned above are serving the same schools the present year. This continuous service of experienced teachers tends to a greater stability in our school system. Judging from the impressions received on frequent inspections and from results obtained with standard tests, I feel safe in saying that the teachers have maintained their usual reputation for efficiency in teaching and results in drill work. The results in all tests showed a normal year's growth in mental attainments, the classes well graded, and with few exceptions, every pupil in his right grade.
